Desjardins Announces Changes to Certain Chorus II Portfolios. - January 12, 2012

Desjardins Investments Inc., the Manager and Promoter of the Desjardins family of mutual funds, today announced changes to certain Chorus II Portfolios.

These changes reflect the revision of the risk tolerance level associated with an investment in the Chorus II Conservative Portfolio and Chorus II Corporate Class Conservative Portfolio. The risk tolerance level associated with an investment in either one of those Portfolios has been revised and lowered from "low to medium" to "low".
