Six new funds join the Desjardins Family of Funds - October 21, 2013

The team at Desjardins Funds is proud to announce the addition of six new Funds to the family, expanding its range of investment products to better meet investors' needs. Five of the six funds are designed more specifically for investors seeking income from fixed-income securities or dividend stocks, while the last is geared to long-term capital growth.

Below is a list of the funds joining the family. Click on each one for more detailed information.

- Desjardins Global Corporate Bond Fund
- Desjardins Emerging Markets Bond Fund
- Desjardins Canadian Equity Income Fund
- Desjardins Global Infrastructure Fund
- Desjardins Emerging Markets Opportunities Fund

Since several of these funds invest in foreign markets, adding them enhances the Desjardins Funds offering of international funds to allow investors to capitalize on growth around the world.

To support performance, management mandates for the funds have been awarded to globally renowned portfolio managers. Three of these are newcomers to Desjardins Funds.

PIMCO Canada Corp., one of the largest fixed-income portfolio manager in the world, has responsibility for the Desjardins Global Tactical Bond Fund. Canadian firm Lincluden Investment Management Limited takes up the management mandate for the Desjardins Canadian Equity Income Fund, and Australian Colonial First State Asset Management Australia (Limited)* handles the Desjardins Global Infrastructure Fund.

Desjardins Funds is committed to bringing you diversified products to allow you to seize on the best market opportunities for your investments.

If you'd like to invest in one of these funds or simply discuss your investment strategy, don't hesitate to contact your advisor.
