Desjardins Emerging Markets Fund excels yet again - March 27th, 2014

For the third year in a row, the Desjardins Emerging Markets Fund has won Fundata's FundGrade A+ rating for its exceptional performance throughout 2013.

Our partner NEI Investments also garnered FundGrade A+¹ ratings for two of its funds in 2013: the NEI Ethical Canadian Stock Fund and NEI Ethical Special Equity Fund. Desjardins Funds' SocieTerra Portfolio asset allocation includes both of these funds in different proportions, adding to their strong portfolio performance.

These awards once again underscore Desjardins Funds' commitment to offering quality investments meticulously and consistently managed by a team of seasoned portfolio managers.

1. The objective of FundGrade is to identify high quality investment funds in the Canadian fund universe that have achieved superior risk adjusted performance relative to their peers. The A+ Grade was designed to identify not only the best performing mutual funds but also the most consistent. It is a supplemental calculation to the FundGrade, looking at the FundGrades from the previous calendar year. To achieve an A+, a fund must have achieved and maintained high FundGrade scores throughout the year. For more information about FundGrade A+, visit the website at www.fundgradeawards.com.
